

The Rules of the Game

Metropolis Boys' Retreat Diakonia Retreat Center

Game Plan

Just as there are rules that govern play on the basketball court, football field, or baseball diamond, there are rules that govern the life of the faithful. The world suggests that we ignore these rules and offers us “easy” ways to worldly wealth, pleasure, power, and prestige—none of which provide lasting joy. Don't believe its hype. Come and learn God's rules. Come and live by God's rules.
